

Green Eagle Rules

1. Judging will be prior to the annual PSA conference.
2. Prints receiving a dated Green Eagle award during a three-year acceptance period are eligible. The acceptance period ends on August 1 of each year and begins three years earlier.
3. Not Eligible - Prints having received an award (medal or an honorable mention) in a prior Green Eagle contest.
4. A reprint of the original photograph, based on changes suggested at the time the Green Eagle was awarded, will be accepted in place of the original print.
5. Mounted prints will not be accepted. Prints exceeding 11x14 inches will not be accepted.
6. Send prints to the American Portfolio's Director or to their designee to arrive by August 1st. The original Green Eagle label (or Xerox copy of the label), or the commentator's commentary, proving the award must accompany each print.
7. Sufficient postage must be included with each entry to return prints after the contest. However, if the prints are NOT to be returned, no postage need be included. Non-returned prints will be destroyed by the contest director.
8. Prints failing to receive an award in the Green Eagle contest can be submitted again in following years provided they fall within the acceptance (eligibility) period. An award is a medal or an honorable mention.
9. Winners will be announced at the annual PSA conference, in the Pictorial Print News Section of the PSA Journal and displayed on the PSA website. Entering Green Eagle Award prints in this Contest, constitutes permission, without fee, for PSA to reproduce and display as noted.
10. Prints will be returned within a reasonable time after the annual PSA conference except for those retained for possible reproduction in the PSA Journal or on the PSA web site.
11. Prints will be judged according to division and type as determined by the American Portfolio's Director. Generally this means monochrome and color.
12. The following awards will be given in each contest division: PPD medals for first, second, and third place as well as a suitable number of honorable mention ribbons.
